

You can now print from your laptop at the Library!

Go to the website: <http://vendprint880:9090>

Welcome to Rio Hondo College Library's wireless printing system. You can print files or web pages at the library through the internet from your wireless device.

Here is how to do it:

1. Enter your E-mail address to identify your job.
2. Select a document on your computer or enter a web page address.
3. Choose Black & White (10 cents) or Color printing ($1).
4. Click the print button.
5. You can now print more documents or webpages, or head to the Release Station in the Copy Center to print off your job.

Enter your email address, the name of the file to print or a web address, and choose your printer. Then head to the Copy Center to print it off – it's that simple.

Like printing from the student workstations, it's ten cents per page for black & white, one dollar a page for color.

Printing is limited to Microsoft Office readable files and web pages. You can not choose which pages to print – it's all or nothing.

Please remember, unlike on the workstations, there is no password, so be careful when printing personal items.
