Library Call Number: Ref LB 2369 .G53 2009

Notes:
• Double-space all citations; examples are single-spaced to conserve space. If a citation runs more than one line, indent the following line(s) one-half inch from the left margin. 5.3.2
• Use 1-inch margins on all sides and choose an easily readable font, e.g., 12-point Times New Roman.
• Arrange the list of references you used in alphabetical order by the last name of the references’ authors. (5.3.3) In MLA format, this list appears on a separate page and is titled Works Cited.
• The print books (paper format) listed below can be found in the College Library; you may find it useful to compare the actual book with its citation.
• Notes and examples include the applicable chapter and section numbers of the MLA Handbook. (e.g., 5.6.1 = Chapter 5, section 6, item 1)

IF YOUR BOOK IS IN PRINT (PAPER) FORMAT:

General Format 5.5.1
Author(s), if known. Title. City of Publication: Publisher, Year Published. Print.

No Author 5.5.9

Single Author 5.5.2; 5.3.4 for two or more works by the same author

Single Editor 5.5.3

Multiple Authors 5.5.4

Acceptable Alternatives for 4 or More Authors: Use Either Format 5.5.4

Multiple Editors 5.5.4; 5.3.4 for works by the same editors

Corporate Author 5.5.5

Editions, Compilations, Translations, or Series 5.5.3, 5.5.11, 5.5.13, 5.5.15

Author(s), if known. Title. Editor, Compiler or Translator, if known. edition. City of Publication: Publisher, Year Published. Print. Series name and number, if applicable.

Multivolume Works 5.5.14

(1) If you used most or all of only one volume of a multivolume work:

Author, if known, otherwise, Editor, if known. Title. Editor, if relevant. edition. Volume used. City of Publication: Publisher, Year Published. Print.

(2) If you used most or all of two or more volumes of a multivolume work:
Author, if known, otherwise, Editor, if known. Title. Editor, if relevant. Edition. Total number of volumes in set. City of Publication: Publisher, Year Published. Print.

Government Publications 5.5.20; 5.3.4 for two or more works by the same author

The standard book format applies with some notes: Cite the author of the publication if the author is identified. Otherwise, start with the name of the national (or state) government, followed by the agency (including any subdivisions or agencies) that serves as the organizational author. US government documents are typically published by the Government Printing Office, which MLA abbreviates as GPO.

Note:
- URLs are an optional part of the citation. Include a URL “as supplementary information only when the reader probably cannot locate the source without it or when your instructor requires it.” See 5.6.1 (p. 182) for more information.
Books from the Library’s Online Databases 5.6.2.c

Use the appropriate format above for print books. Add the following elements: Title of the Online Database. Web. Date you accessed the e-book.

Printed Books that You Found on the Web 5.6.2.c

Many books are found on Web sites that include complete publication information on the books’ printed editions. (If you have incomplete publication information on a book’s printed edition, see the following section.)

Use the appropriate format above for books published in print. Add the following elements: Title of the Web Site where you found the book. Web. Date you accessed the e-book.

E-Books with Incomplete Publication Information and Online-Only Books 5.6.2.b

- For Web sites that provide incomplete publication information on the e-books’ printed edition (e.g., no publisher name or city of publication), and
- For books that exist only on a Web site, i.e., the book has no print equivalent: Gather as much publication information as you can from the Web site, refer to the above examples for print books, then follow this format:

  Author, editor, or compiler (if known). Title of the Work. Title of Overall Web site, if distinct from the title of the work. Version or edition. Publisher or sponsor of the Web site (use n.p. if not available), Date of publication (use n.d. if not available). Web. Date accessed.

